

1. Realization of a project
2. Agreements and mediation of sale

Realization of a project

1. As soon as we get an order for you, we will send a proposition of preparing illustrations for a Customer to you.
2. After your agreeing to do it, we will send the agreements of cooperation and mediation to your email address.
3. After signing the mentioned agreements, we begin to realize the project.
4. We will give all instructions concerning the realization to you before you begin your work.
5. During the realization of the order, the work is systematically consulted with our worker.
6. At the moment of realizing an initial project, a customer receives preliminary illustrations from us.
7. When there is a demand for some corrections, you will be given a list of wanted changes.
8. After this stage, a customer receives again illustrations to acceptance.
9. If they do not have any remarks, the work on this project is considered to be finished.

Agreements and mediation of sale

1. The agreements of cooperation and mediation are signed when an illustrator gets the first order.
2. They are sent to your email address, given while registering.
3. The agreements include detailed information on cooperation and mediation of sale concerning: the object of the agreement, the guaranty of works' authorship, Selling of copyrights, payment, clauses of exclusivity and confidentiality, the rights of the representative (MULTIDEAS), the period during which the agreement is binding, and other rules.
4. The agreements should be printed, signed and sent back to the address of the company MULTIDEAS Media Partnership.